Connecticut College
Digital Commons @ Connecticut College

Historic Sheet Music Collection | Greer Music Library

1832

I Have Something Sweet To Say

George Linley

Charles Edward Horn

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.conncoll.edu/sheetmusic

Recommended Citation
Linley, George and Horn, Charles Edward, "I Have Something Sweet To Say" (1832). Historic Sheet Music Collection. Paper 181.
http://digitalcommons.conncoll.edu/sheetmusic/181

This Score is brought to you for free and open access by the Greer Music Library at Digital Commons @ Connecticut College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Historic Sheet Music Collection by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Connecticut College. For more information, please contact bpancier@conncoll.edu.
The views expressed in this paper are solely those of the author.

I HAVE SOMETHING SWEET TO SAY,

A favorite SONG Sung by

Mr C. Horn,

AT THE

Public & Private Concerts

Altered: newly Arranged & Adapted

FROM THE MELODY AND WORDS OF A

Song by

GEORGE LINLEY ESQ.,

BY

Charles C. Horn.

Pr: 50 C.

NEW YORK

Published by James L. Hewitt & Co. 137 Broadway.

VOICE.

PIANO FORTE.

ALLEGRETTO.

f

In the Valley by the Mill Near the gently flowing rill Will you Come when all is still Will you

Come when all is still When the day light fades away Thither thither I will stray I have something sweet to say Will you Come will you Come I have something sweet to say Will you

Come When the Stars are side by side Like some

f lovers in the Sky Lovethy gentle feet shall guide Where his sweetest flowrets lie When the Moon is faintly seen Riseing thro' yon willows green In the Valley I shall be waiting anxiously for thee In the valley I shall be waiting anxiously for thee Thither

thither I will stray when the day light fades away I have something sweet to say Will you

Come will you Come I have something sweet to say Will you Come.

mf

As the flower to the Bee As the blossom on the tree So ar't thou my love to me so ar't thou my love to me Like the Bird that sinks to rest In his own lov'd peaceful nest and thy smiles to make me blest Let me be let me be and thy smiles to make me blest Let me be.

f

Not with gay hearts love doth dwell his home the dewy spangled dell O how sweet it is to Rove hand in hand with those we love When the

Moon is faintly seen riseing thro' yon willows green In the Valley I shall be waiting

anxiously for thee In the Valley I shall be waiting anxiously for thee Thither

thither I will stray when the day light fades away I have something sweet to say Will you

Come will you Come I have something sweet to say will you Come.

mf